

C35 Plus Hyperextension Brace

To open the lock for the lower bar on the hyperextension brace.
Unlock the screw under the cover (with the allen wrench that is supplied with the brace). This will make the lower bar move with the patient and flex during movement.

